"Rain-sticks" and "goloshes" were in greater demand yesterday afternoon and evening than at any time since the beginning of the rainy season. The intermittent showers of the storm which began at 7 o'clock Thursday morning and ended last night shortly before 12, settled down to a steady, business-like downpour at 1 o'clock yesterday and continued with practically no cessation until the storm subsided. Although the rain was heavy yesterday afternoon, and tiny rivers rolled merrily along the city's streets toward the south where they were soaked up by the thirsty soil, no one, except a few who were caught without umbrellas, suffered any inconvenience.

Prosperity is practically assured for the farmers and orchardists as a result of the rain. Experts declare that a good December rainfall assures a splendid rainy season.

"While we do not make a seasonal forecast," said Ford A. Carpenter, government forecaster at Los Angeles, "it is nevertheless a fact that the season is never successful in California unless there is a good December rainfall, and it follows that with such generous rains as we have had this month the season will be a good one."

Justin Copeland's rain gauge at 615 North Sycamore street registered 1.82 inches for the storm, and 6.12 inches for the season, while S. Hill & Son's gauge at 213 East Fourth street, registered 1.95 for the storm and 5.99 for the season.

A Grand Rain

D. Eymann Huff, secretary and manager of the Orange County Fruit Exchange at Orange said this morning, "It was a grand rain not alone for the citrus industry but for all other industries as well. It caused no damage as far as we know. The rain washed off the trees, brightened them up and will start them off anew. As a result of the rain the danger from frost would seem to have been pretty well eliminated. The rainfall in Tulare county has been heavy and this will delay picking for three or four days and this will have a tendency to help the market. The Associated houses of the Fruit Exchange are shipping no fruit whatever, believing it better for all concerned to hold back on shipments until the fruit is well colored, fit for consumption and better worth the consumer's money. The shippers in Tulare county and other northern counties are also holding back and all of California will benefit by this by virtue of its creating a much more favorable impression in the East as regards California fruit."

Charles C. Johnson, manager of the Celery Growers' Association, Smetzer, said: "Celery has been greatly benefited by the rain. The plants are coming out very brightly, having shown a growth in the last few weeks. The weather has been cool and yet not too cool. We have heard of no damage done by the rain."

Soil Benefited

A. J. Boulanger, manager of the Orange County Vegetable Association's house at Villa Park, said: "The rain will have the effect of delaying the picking of bell peppers for two or three days. It depends on the soils in various parts of this section. Those having light, sandy loam soil will be able to pick Monday, while those having heavier soil will be delayed for a day or so. In the long run this season's rain so far has been a benefit to the soil. The rain is falling much more favorably than last year, when a number of growers lost their peppers on account of continued wet weather. This winter, however, the rain has been falling, with intervals of a week or more between showers and this has given the water a chance to soak into the soil."

Roy K. Bishop, county horticultural commissioner, said: "The rain will help the navel, besides being a decided benefit to the trees themselves, washing off the leaves and improving their general appearance and condition."

Halt, Diogenes! Douse That Glim! Here's Honest Man

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 12.—W. T. Bunkers walked into the police station today, carrying a small satchel, which he turned over to the police captain. The satchel contained $1000 in currency and gold, a watch, bearing the monogram "M. H." and a certificate showing $3000 on deposit with Henry Clews & Co., New York bankers. The certificate was in favor of Marie Hodekin. Bunkers found the satchel on the pavement at the intersection of Sutter and Powell streets.

GERMAN CHECKS CLAIMED IN POLAND

Deeply Significant Changes Reported Along War Line in North of Europe

FRENCH SUCCESSES SAID TO BE MADE IN THE WEST

Berlin Remains Silent Except to Deny Reports of Victory by Allies

LONDON, Dec. 12.—A review of the war situation tonight indicates some changes along the front which may be deeply significant. The French claim general successes on the western battle line, culminating with winning a foothold on the Yser south of Ypres. This the British report confirms.

Regarding the western theater of war, Berlin is silent except to claim certain advances around Argonne. Russian reports indicate a deeper confidence. It is claimed the German advance from the north has been definitely checked. If this is true it may be the turning point in the German aggressive in Poland.

Berlin's denial is entirely as emphatic. It asserts conditions in Poland are satisfactory and that the advance continues.

There is no definite news from South American waters, but some activity is reported around German naval concentration points.

BUENOS AYRES, Dec. 12.—A request that 300 beds be prepared for men wounded in the Falkland Islands naval battle was received at Montevideo today in a wireless message from the British fleet. The message stated that the wounded will be landed there Monday. Nearly all are believed to be Germans. The explanation is given that the fleet will pass Montevideo 300 miles at sea tomorrow. The ships bearing the wounded men will put into port.

Persistent rumors prevail here that the German cruiser Dresden, variously reported as lost following the Falkland Islands battle, is safe in a small bay on the Patagonian coast.

LONDON, Dec. 12.—Two attempts by German submarines to raid the Firth of North, Scotland, was reported today by the Daily Mail. The Mail said the attacks were made on Wednesday, and that two of the submarines are believed to have been lost. No official confirmation was given the report.

LONDON, Dec. 12.—The great German Gottorp barracks at Kiel have been burned, according to a message coming from Copenhagen. It is stated the authorities are silent regarding the origin of the fire.

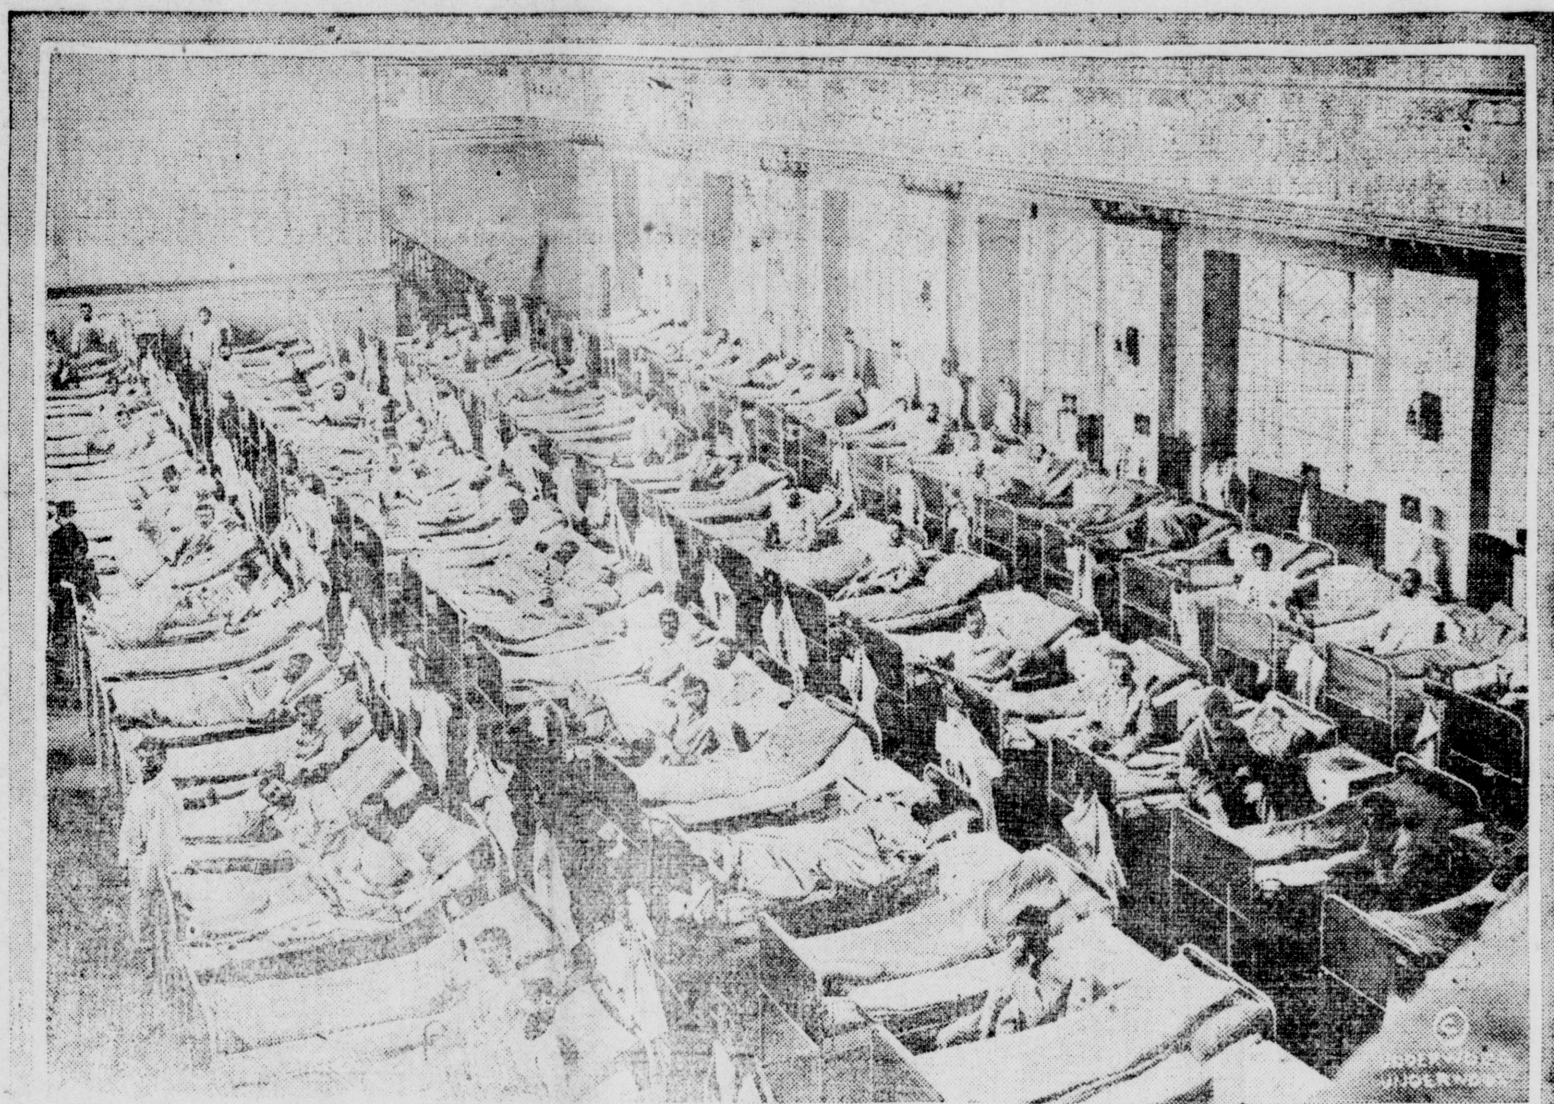

PARIS, Dec. 12.—The evacuation by the Germans of the west bank of the Yser "north of the ferryman's house," where there has been much desperate fighting, was officially reported today by the French war office. It is claimed that other important positions were taken by the French.

BERLIN, Dec. 12.—(Wireless to London.)—The combined British and French fleet unsuccessfully attacked the Dardanelles, according to report received here last night.

1500 S. P. EMPLOYEES TO RETURN TO WORK

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 12.—Fifteen hundred employees of the Southern Pacific railroad shops, who were laid off last October, will return to work next Monday. This is regarded as one of the most promising "prosperity items" of the month. Orders for their return came from San Francisco today.

How the Germans Care for their Wounded Enemies

IN response to charges that the Germans ill-treat their wounded enemies, the Kaiser recently permitted the taking of the large photograph, showing French prisoners being cared for in a modern, well-equipped hospital. The lower picture shows President Poincaré of France, with Gen. Castelnau on a visit to the French army near the battle line.

KAISER IS RAPIDLY REGAINING HEALTH

His Physician Says He Will Return to Front in Week or Ten Days

BERLIN, Dec. 12.—The Kaiser is convalescing satisfactorily. He will be able to return to the front in a week or ten days. There is said to be absolutely no grounds for the alarming reports circulated abroad.

SHORTAGE OF NAVY MUNITIONS DENIED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—Criticism by certain newspapers of America's unpreparedness for war was characterized today as "claptrap and humbuggery," by Chairman Padgett of the House Naval Affairs Committee.

"A propaganda of misinformation, alarm and jingoism is sweeping the land," he declared. Representative Padgett said his committee has a record of the powder, torpedoes and munitions held in reserve by the navy, and he said this record disproves the contention that the navy is short of ammunition.

The indications today pointed to the probability that the committee will favor a program of two new battleships and eight submarines.

GREECE ORDERS 1,666,000 BUSHELS WHEAT A MONTH

CHICAGO, Dec. 12.—Commission men on La Salle street today began preparations for supplying 1,666,000 bushels of wheat a month to Greece, in response to a cablegram from A. B. Cook, American consul at Patras, which was received by the Association of Commerce yesterday. Greece is in such urgent need of the grain, Consul Cooke said, that they are willing to pay cash in advance and all expenses incurred in telegraphing, etc.

POLE IS HONORED BY RUSSIAN ACADEMY

PETROGRAD, Russia (via London), Dec. 12.—Henryk Sienkiewicz, author of Quo Vadis and holder of the 1905 Nobel prize for literature, yesterday was elected honorary member of the Russian Academy of Sciences. The Russians are gratified over the honor thus conferred on the writer, which is considered a unique one for a Pole.

HALF MILLION IS INCOME OF 135

That 114,448 Persons Get $3333 to $5000 Yearly Income Each is Shown

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—The annual report of the commissioner of internal revenue shows that there are 79,426 individuals in the United States with net incomes ranging from $2500 to $3333; also 114,448 with incomes ranging from $3333 to $5000; 101,718 with incomes of from $5000 to $10,000; 26,818 with incomes from $10,000 to $15,000; 11,977 from $15,000 to $20,000; 6817 from $20,000 to $25,000; 4164 from $25,000 to $30,000; 4553 from $30,000 to $40,000; 2427 from $40,000 to $50,000; 2618 from $50,000 to $75,000; 998 from $75,000 to $100,000; 785 from $100,000 to $150,000; 311 from $150,000 to $200,000; 145 from $200,000 to $250,000; 94 from $250,000 to $300,000; 84 from $300,000 to $400,000; 44 from $400,000 to $500,000; and 135 with $500,000 or more.

Of the 357,598 who paid the income tax, 55,272 were single men and 23,551 single women, and 278,825 married persons. Of these married persons, 682 returns were made by women.

One of the interesting features of the figures is that there were almost half as many single women who had incomes sufficient to be taxed as single men.

The revenues of the government derived from internal revenue taxes amounted to $380,000,000, the greatest in the history of the country.

BRYAN WILL PROBE GERMAN CHARGES

Teutons Declare Two American Firms Sending Mushroom Bullets to Canada

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—Secretary Bryan will investigate charges made by the German ambassador against two American arms companies that they are selling "mushroom" and other cartridges, the use of which in war is condemned, if he finds that the legal aspects of the situation merit action by the department. According to the best information obtainable here they do not.

The ambassador charged in a formal protest to the State Department that the Union Metallic Cartridge Company of Bridgeport, Conn., was sending "mushroom" bullets to Canada, presumably for use of the forces in Europe, and that the Winchester Repeating Arms Company of New Haven had been sending riot guns and buckshot cartridges to the British. Both companies deny the charges.

KENT FOUND NOT GUILTY; JURY ACTS FAST

Agreement Reached in Wilson Case in One Hour and Forty Minutes

GARDEN GROVE MAN GOES FORTH FREE

Rogers Shows Temper When Informed of Strong Use Made of a Point in Case

"The People of the State of California, plaintiff, vs. Frank C. Kent, defendant."
"We, the jury in the above entitled action find the defendant, Frank C. Kent, not guilty."
"E. L. HOUSE, Foreman."

One hour and forty minutes after the key of the jury room had been turned upon them, the twelve men who tried Frank C. Kent agreed upon a verdict of not guilty. Kent was tried on a charge of the murder of I. O. Wilson.

The verdict was not expected, for the defense had some features of contention that seemed insurmountable.

The very theory of reasonable doubt rose up at every point of contact between prosecution and defense. Of six physicians called none could say positively what was the cause of death. Two said they believed it was the result of a blow, and the others that they believed death was due to senile epilepsy. It was a case of where the defendant had the benefit of reasonable doubt as to the cause of death, as well as to the cause of injury. Upon the injuries received by Wilson there was controversy. The prosecution's witnesses declared Wilson was struck a blow downward with the rake. Mr. and Mrs. Kent said Kent merely reached out and with the rake pulled Wilson back so that he could not strike Mrs. Kent.

Rogers Shows Temper

After he finished his address to the jury yesterday morning Attorney Earl Rogers, who with Attorney H. C. Head of Santa Ana and Milton Cohen of Los Angeles defended Kent, went to the hotel. After noon, District Attorney West declared that by Kent's own statement the injuries could not have been made as he said they were. Wilson's face was scratched on the left side. Kent testified that he reached out and caught Wilson on the right side.

The district attorney made this a strong talking point. One of Rogers' detectives hastened to the hotel and told Rogers about it, and Rogers in turn hastened to the court room. Displaying temper, Rogers declared that Kent had said that he caught Wilson by the left shoulder, and he demanded of Attorney Cohen why he had not stopped West in his argument. The district attorney calmly produced the transcript of the evidence and showed conclusively that Kent had said "right side." Rogers then declared that it was so apparent to all that Kent meant left side that his saying right side had gone unnoticed, just as a person might say "Kent" instead of "Wilson," and everybody would understand that "Wilson" was meant. West declared that his own memory and the record were absolutely against any such loophole. He said the physical facts simply proved the story of the defense to be untrue.

Verdict Applauded

Instructions were read by Judge West, and at 3:40 o'clock the jury retired. At 5:20 o'clock it returned. When the foreman announced a verdict of not guilty there was a burst of hand-clapping in the room, and a number of persons shook hands with Kent and Mrs. Kent. As the jury walked out, Kent shook hands with each juror.

It was on May 13 last that the fracas occurred between Wilson, a Santa Ana real estate man, and Kent, a Garden Grove rancher. The two had a difference over the use of water from a windmill tank. Kent had a garden rake in his hands, and the prosecution alleged that he struck Wilson over the head. Wilson got along very well for about three weeks. Then he became ill and on June 12 he died.

POPE'S PEACE PLAN FOR CHRISTMAS TRUCE FAILS

ROME, Dec. 12.—The Vatican has announced the failure of the Pope's effort for a Christmas truce between the warring nations. It is stated but one power opposed the plan.

ADD WAR PARIS

The communication said: "Artillery duels continue in the Arras region. The heavy guns of the French near the Aisne silenced the German field pieces and destroyed the battery and their mortars. In the region of Perthes and Grurie woods, the French gained the advantage in both artillery and infantry actions. On the heights of the Meuse two German batteries were destroyed. A block-house they held was blown up."

Increase Your Wealth

by investing in land near

Templeton or Paso Robles

This locality has been producing a very superior quality of apples, pears, prunes, cherries, grapes, almonds, and walnuts without irrigation for many years, but it was only recently that any particular attention was paid to the development of the fruit and nut industry.

During the last year or two many thousands of acres have been set out by men from Southern California and orders have been placed with nurseries for trees to plant five thousand acres this coming season.

The Templeton-Paso Robles district produces a wider range of products than is grown in any other one locality between Los Angeles and San Francisco. This locality possesses several distinctive features which make it specially attractive for investment and home building.

Good ranches, most any size, $75.00 to $150.00 per acre. Well located young orchards in fine condition at $275.00 to $400.00 per acre. Near railway station and within easy motor trucking distance of deep water port puts you in touch with the world's markets.

FULLERTON

MOTORBIKE RIDERS CUT AND BRUISED IN BUMP OF AUTO

Fullerton Tribune: Steve Clark and Roy Lake, riding a motorcycle from Anaheim to Fullerton at 10 o'clock Wednesday night, ran into an automobile driven by Fred Keller of Santa Ana, at the curve in the road a mile south of Fullerton.

Clark and Lake were thrown from their machine and both hurt. They were brought to Fullerton in Keller's auto and taken to a physician for attention to their cuts and bruises.

W. J. Stevens was riding with Keller, and the two were on their way home from a trip to Sacramento. They assert there was no light on the motorcycle and they did not see it until too late to avoid the collision. Marshal French went back with them to the scene of the accident and brought in the motorcycle, which was in bad shape. The auto was minus lights and bumper after the accident.

Keller went to Santa Ana under agreement to return this morning for a conference with Marshal French. He was unable to come back, however, on account of the funeral of a relative, but in a phone message said he intends to come later and that he will probably make a claim for damages from the motorcycle riders.

SHOWER IS GIVEN TO CHRISTMAS BRIDE

GARDEN GROVE, Dec. 12.—Wednesday evening, December 9, the Reynburn home was aglow with light and color and alive with merriment. The occasion was a shower for Miss Bertha Hill of Los Angeles, who has been one of Garden Grove's most popular teachers for the past two years, and is soon to become the bride of Earl Miller of Los Angeles.

About thirty of her friends were present, and she was the recipient of some beautiful gifts. The rooms were beautifully decorated in smilax and red geraniums. The gifts were attached to red ribbons and hidden in various places and the hunt by Miss Hill was a source of great merriment. After this the evening was spent in games, music and conversation.

Delicious refreshments of ice cream, macaroons and nabiscos were served. All expressed themselves as having a jolly time, and departed wishing Miss Hill a long and happy married life.

Stanley Winters and wife have returned from a trip to Goleta and may spend the winter here.

The Baptist Sunday school is preparing for a Christmas entertainment. Mrs. McLean has charge of the program. Mrs. Bissett and Mrs. L. Beardley are assisting her.

POLY MEN NOT TO PLAY OREGONIANS

There seems to be at present no likelihood of the Santa Ana Polytechnic high school football team going north to play the Dalles, Oregon, high school, champions of the northern state. The Oregonians notified the locals that they desired to play off the game here, or at least somewhere in the south. As it would cost the Polytechnicians about $900 to get the northerners down here the project has been abandoned.

EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

Take a Glass of Salts to Flush
Kidneys if Bladder
Bothers You

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites
the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region;
rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy;
take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine.
This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone;
makes a delightful effervescent lithiawater drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

baptized in the beautiful church. The baptismal font is a present from the former charge of Pastor Kleinlein in

WAR AS A TEMPERANCE ARGUMENT

Whatever else the European war shall accomplish and however it shall change the geography of the world, it has brought out the fact—and is bringing it out daily with increased force—that war in these modern days is no boon to the booze industry.

The Kaiser has warned his troops to shun John Barleycorn. The Czar has stopped the sale of vodka to his subjects—incidentally cutting down the Russian revenues by some thirty-seven millions of dollars per year. The French government has recommended the cessation of sale of all intoxicating liquors. Now comes England, the London licensing authorities having decided that all sales of intoxicants shall close at 10 o'clock p. m. The same authority goes on record as holding that the hour of 10 a. m. is as early as should be permitted for the opening of the sale of liquor.

In America the brewers predict that the war tax of seventy-five cents a barrel will diminish the consumption of beer by fully fifty per cent.

The significant lesson to be drawn from these facts is this: All the foreign nations engaged in the war, enormous as their expenses are, and pressing as is their need for money for war purposes, find it cheaper to reduce their revenues hundreds of millions of dollars by cutting down the sale of liquor than to take the revenues these sales bring in.

Is this not a stronger economic argument for temperance than could be brought forward by the most ardent advocate of prohibition?

IS THIS THE SOLUTION?

There has been so much agitation for and against the automobile stage service, not alone in Santa Ana and in Orange County, but in practically every city and county in Southern California, that it comes as a relief to learn that the owners and operators of these lines have at last taken the initiative looking toward adequate and proper regulation of the traffic.

In Los Angeles, the "jitney" busmen—to give them the name they themselves use—have formed an association embracing, it is said, 400 automobiles now doing service as stages.

These owners and drivers take the stand that the auto bus has passed the experimental stage. They now wish to have it recognized as a legitimate business, and to that end they not only ask that Los Angeles enact legislation regulating the business, but themselves lay down rules which they consider both desirable and essential. And these rules are considerably stricter in nature than ordinary traffic rules call for.

In brief, the auto bus men ask that an ordinance be passed which shall embody the following provisions:

That all drivers shall pass an educational examination.

That all drivers be required to undergo rigorous examination as to their qualifications for piloting a machine.

That the owners and drivers join hands with the police in enforcing the traffic laws.

That all irresponsible drivers and owners be eliminated.

That the association propose to place the business on a permanent plane; to have each machine examined once a month, at least, for possible flaws; to have illustrated lectures at stated intervals on traffic rules, and to make an effort to have the buses legally recognized as common carriers.

This would seem to provide a fair solution of the problem of what shall be done with the jitney buses. No one will deny that, properly regulated, they are a tremendous convenience to the general public. What complaint has arisen concerning the auto stages has been brought about by the drivers or owners of the lines themselves because of their ignoring this very fact that they are supposed to be a public convenience and necessity.

Owners and operators of "jitney" lines in other towns than Los Angeles would do well to follow the example set by the association in the metropolis.

FOES FACE ON BANK OF RIVER DRINA

Servians and Austrians in Paradoxical Situation Without Parallel

NISH, Servia, Nov. 1.—(By mail to New York.)—At Krupanj, on the eastern bank of the Drina, a situation has developed probably without parallel in all the present European war.

Although able to boast of the fact that they are in the enemy's territory, the Austrians are in the rather embarrassing position of neither being able to advance nor retire. The least movement on their part would mean the certain annihilation of the entire detachment.

For over a month now these few Austrians near Krupanj have been face to face with the Servians, the trenches of the two armies not being on an average of more than 60 yards apart. It is this proximity, together with the apparent friendliness that has grown up between the two bodies of troops, that has given rise to the most unusual situation.

Every evening the Servians have recourse to a most ingenious method of tantalizing their Austrian neighbors in the trenches so near at hand. This is for the Servians to sing the folk songs of the various districts of Servia. In the Austrian ranks there are many Slavs, or Servians, coming from Bosnia, Dalmatia, Croatia, Slavonia, and other Servian provinces which are under Austrian rule. That these folk songs of the Servians drive almost to madness and desertion their brothers in the rival trenches there can be no doubt, and no small portion of the duty of the Austrian sentinels is that of guarding against Servian desertions within the Austrian ranks rather than Servian attacks from without.

In response to these folk songs of the Servians, the Austrians who are not of Slav origin set up cries of "Come on you half-starved Servians; surrender yourselves; come over to us; we'll give you something to eat."

In response to this, the Servians, to show that they are not half-starved, cease singing and shower the Austrian trenches with chicken bones and other remnants of the evening's repast.

Another favorite pastime of the Servians is to hurl a whole volley of tin cans and boxes at the trenches, pretending they are bombs and accompanying them with vocal volleys which imitate to perfection the sound of exploding shells. The Austrians reply by swearing at the Servians in all twelve of the languages most commonly spoken in the Austrian empire together with a goodly number of dialect "cuss-words."

Despite this seeming friendliness, there is never a relaxation for a moment either in the military precautions or in the consciousness on both sides that the instant the order comes to fight, it means fight to the last man. The Austrians change their men in the trenches every 24 hours. The Servians, being numerically inferior, are not able to do so, and the men now in the trenches have been there for a month without change. The odor of decaying bodies, which lie between the two trenches, rises also constantly to the nostrils of both sides, and despite the menace of this, and despite the seeming friendliness between the two lines, there is not a man who does not know that to venture forth even to bury or drag away the corpses, would mean instant death.

OLDFIELD AND BURMAN TO BATTLE FOR THE WORLD SPEED TITLE

Barney Oldfield and Bob Burman, two of the greatest dirt track drivers in the history of automobile racing, will meet in a fifty-mile match race for the circular dirt track championship of the world at Ascot Park, Los Angeles, on Sunday, December 20. This was agreed upon at a meeting of the two noted pilots in Los Angeles. Oldfield will drive the Fiat Cyclone and Burman will handle the French Peugeot.

The records of the two drivers show that the present year is the most successful in the spectacular career of each one. The recent victory of Oldfield in the Phoenix event and his masterful drive into second place in the Corona classic are well remembered. Since early October Burman has established new world's circular dirt track records for all distances for from fifteen to one hundred miles. The sanction of the American Automobile Association, the governing body in automobile racing, has been applied for and the meet will be held under the A. A. A. supervision.

VON EMMICH IS NOT A SUICIDE

Tells Story of the Taking of Liege; Says City Fell in 36 Hours After Assault

BY KARL H. VON WIEGAND (Copyrighted 1914 by U. P. Copyright in Great Britain.)

HEADQUARTERS OF GEN. VON EMMICH, France. (By Courier to Berlin, Dec. 1. Delayed)—The story of the capture of Liege has just been told me by Gen. Von Emmich whose forces took the city and made prisoner Gen. Leman, its Belgian defender. It is the first time the general's account has been given to the public. Liege proper fell within 36 hours after the German assault actually began. The losses that the foreign newspapers declared the Germans suffered in taking the city exceeded the numerical strength of the entire force actually engaged. Von Emmich smiled as he made this statement. Just what were the German losses he could not say.

"You know I was reported to have committed suicide," he added. "Of course it was ridiculous, but it tends to show how unreliable were the reports circulated." Then Von Emmich remarked that he is said to have been rumored dead oftener than any other German general apparently. However, he says he is in the best of health and spirits. The capture of Liege was plainly only one incident of the war to him.

"We began the actual attack in the evening," he continued. "Two forts were taken by storm. We took possession at 6 o'clock on the morning of the second day. We remained there but a short time then marched on to Namur. The bombardment of the Liege forts which still held out, was left to the heavy artillery. This we left behind to accomplish the reduction of the Belgian positions."

Von Emmich is a soldier. He is not blind to the suffering and hardships caused by war, but now that it has begun, he believes it must be conducted with the utmost vigor.

"The most terrible scenes incident to such conflict often tug at men's heartstrings," he said. "But aside from making it as humane as possible, there is little room for sentimentality."

WORLD'S OSTRICH RECORD IS BROKEN

Loading, Shipping, Unloading of 11 Cars of 60 Birds in Unprecedented Time

CALIPATRIA, Dec. 12.—Bismark Dreyer, general manager of the Calipatria Ostrich Farm, the new Imperial Valley industry, broke the world's record yesterday for loading, shipping and unloading the largest train of ostriches ever shipped, containing eleven cars of sixty birds each.

The eleven cars were loaded at Cashion, Ariz., in three hours. One car was cut out at Niland to continue to the Tejon ranch. The other ten cars continued to Calipatria and were unloaded yesterday for the Calipatria Ostrich Farm.

The Southern Pacific Company furnished a special train from Cashion to Niland and another special from Niland to Calipatria. Only three birds lost their lives on the trip.

In this large bunch of birds there are eight pair of the famous Nubians, which produce the largest and finest feathers. The balance of the 600 are the South African or Transvaal ostriches. Three of these birds are from the first shipment from the Transvaal to Chicago for the World's Fair.

PLAYING 'POSSUM ESCAPES OSTRICH THAT KICKED HIM

Fullerton Tribune: While making a short cut across a pasture at the ostrich farm northeast of Fullerton Wednesday, Henry Fal-lert had a mix-up with one of the big birds and a narrow escape from serious injury. He did not see the ostrich until it was close upon him and escape was impossible. His clothes were torn and a vicious kick from the bird laid him flat on the ground. He kept quiet there until the ostrich, after circling about him several times, went for enough away to give him a chance to run—and Henry "beat it."

GOOD SUGGESTION TO SANTA ANA PEOPLE

It is surprising the amount of old, foul matter the simple mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., known as Adler-ika, drains from the system. This remedy became famous by curing appendicitis, and acts on BOTH the upper and lower bowel so thoroughly that ONE DOSE relieves sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation almost IMMEDIATELY. We are mighty glad we are Santa Ana agents for Adler-ika. Rowley Drug Co.—Advertisement.

Announcement to Airedale Fanciers

Recently I imported an English Airedale bitch of superior quality in which to one of the most noted stud dogs of the breed. This bitch is a proven producer of high quality stock, among which the big St. John's winner Express Order, and in her present litter which looks very promising there should be some real flyers. These puppies will be ready for Christmas delivery, when they will be about two months old, and will be offered for sale at moderate prices. Each is an excellent specimen of the breed, there are no "mutts" nor "runts." All are guaranteed to be exactly as represented and positively no inferior stock will be sold from this kennel at any price. For particulars address

Doings in Social and Club Circles

AT ELLIS SMITH HOME

Ebell Economics Meeting Successful Amid Cheery Surroundings

The beautiful new home of the Ellis Smiths on Fifteenth and Main was aglow with Yuletide cheer and festivity yesterday afternoon in welcome to the ladies who compose the Fifth economic section of the Ebell Society. In spite of the inclemency of the weather, fourteen ladies were present to respond to roll call with hints on Christmas giving.

Plumosis fern and poinsettias in profusion furnished the elaborate decorations of both living and dining rooms. With the greenery fashioned in wall draperies and festoonings the effect was charming.

The subject of "Home Construction" was an appropriate one for the first visit of the club to this perfectly delightful home, so pleasing to the eye and so charming to the fastidious passers-by. Mrs. F. H. McElree had the subject in charge, reading a paper which portrayed her ideas of a model house, after the reading of which a general and enthusiastic discussion followed.

Dr. Willella Waffie and Mrs. Van Dooser were guests of the club. Mrs. Sylvester and Mrs. Mary Taylor assisted the hostess in entertaining and serving the appetizing refreshments which consisted of a delicious "soto" salad, sandwiches, mince pie and cream.

Though the departure of the guests was marked by a stupendous downpour of rain no regrets were even thought of or given expression to for having braved the storm to enjoy so pleasant an afternoon.

Welcomed Long Absent Member
The Canton ladies had their regular meeting yesterday afternoon at G. A. R. Hall. Quite a bit of business was transacted during the session. A feature of the meeting was the return of Mrs. Nora Spradlin who has been ill for a long time. She was most heartily welcomed by her associates.

Teams Were Hosts
The champion high school football team was entertained yesterday afternoon at Taylors, the entertainers being the members of the other three teams of the school. Banana specials were enjoyed after school, about thirty boys enjoying the delicacies.

Music Section of Ebell
The Music Section of the Ebell will meet at the residence of Mrs. H. G. Hall, 1194 North Main street, on Monday afternoon, December 14.

Mrs. Rafferty, Miss Armstrong and Mrs. Gustlin have the meeting in charge, the subject being "Educational Institutions."

FIREMEN'S BANQUET

Annual Supper and Ball Proves One of Enjoyable Events of Season

The Santa Ana Volunteer Fire Company enjoyed its annual banquet last night at L. O. O. F. banquet hall, the firemen in most instances being accompanied by their ladies. The Santa Ana Canton ladies served the banquet, which was in the nature of a turkey supper, with hot biscuits, cranberry sauce and the appetizing dishes accessory to such a feast. The three-course supper was put on the boards at 6:30 o'clock, and seventy-five people sat down at the beautifully decorated tables at that hour. From the oyster cocktail to the delicious pies that, with nuts and coffee, constituted the final course, the banquet was one of excellence, and the Canton ladies were highly praised for their successful catering. The members of the City Council were invited to be honored guests of the firemen, and were represented at the feast by Mayor and Mrs. Frank E. Hall, and Mrs. O. B. Alderman, and Walter Greenleaf. R. C. Dickinson acted as toastmaster and called on almost every guest to speak.

The tables and banquet room were beautifully decorated with poinsettias and streamers of red and green crepe paper and smilax. The climax of the decorations was a huge red bell, complimentary to the firemen, the clapper of the bell being a splendid poinsettia. Christmas bells used in profusion and loaned by W. J. Cozad, added in making the spectacle a brilliant one. Mrs. B. Utley loaned the pretty streamers used in the decorations, which will remain in place until after the Veteran Odd Fellows' banquet on next Monday evening. Mrs. Utley, Mrs. C. S. Shaw, Mrs. Sam Jernigan, Mrs. Katherine Clark, Mrs. Will Crawford, Mrs. A. E. Shoemaker, Mrs. A. E. Bird were the ladies waiting on the table. Mrs. W. W. Chandler and Mrs. George Peters, president and vice-president, respectively, of the Ladies' Canton, were actively making the supper a success.

Following the supper and the accompanying toasts, the banquet tables were cleared away, and dancing was the order of the evening until a late hour. Mitchell's orchestra furnished the music for the dancing numbers.

ALTON PACKARD COMING

Humorous Sketch Lecturer to Appear for Y.M.C.A. at the Grand Opera House

The Y. M. C. A. has in store for Santa Ana a genuine treat in the sketch lecture of Alton Packard at the Grand Opera House, Wednesday, Dec. 16.

It is said of the coming attraction, which will be the third in the Y. M. C. A. entertainment course that Alton Packard's humorous sketch lectures are described as "original and spontaneous," full of genuine, wholesome fun. He sketches, plays and sings, recites, introduces comedy, sentiment humor and pathos. "Rare fun well done" is his motto, and his audiences are said to get about all the fun they can hold. But the laugh is always healthy as well as hearty, for he makes us laugh at the things that deserve ridicule and so benefits all the fun is an uplifting principle and a sound moral. This is the real secret of Mr. Packard's phenomenal success on the platform.

HOST TO CHAMPIONS

Football Team Entertained by James Livesey at Country Club Supper

Last night the Poly High football champions were the guests of James Livesey of the sporting goods house of Santa Ana. This was the first of a number of "feeds" to be given the champions. Making the trip in automobiles, three machines being necessary, the jolly crowd was taken to the Country Club, where they found the spacious sitting room decorated with red and white chrysanthemums and high school pennants. A cheerful blaze glowing in the fire place crackled a note of welcome for the boys.

Later came the invitation to the dining room, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Seated at the table the foot ball champions demonstrated their ability to "tackle" a well served five-course supper. When the appetizing feast had been taken care of properly, the young men adjourned to the living room, warm and cosy, where the remainder of the evening was spent entertainingly. Coach Hall acted as master of ceremonies during the evening, giving each fellow an opportunity to show his oratorical ability in a program of extemporaneous speeches, eulogies and an invigorating address, the latter being given by Wayne Stuart, the captain of next year's team. The journey homeward was made after a very hearty expression of thanks to Mr. Livesey for his courtesy in providing the boys with a good time that will long be remembered.

BACK FROM VERA CRUZ

John Stillwell Returns Home After Service in Mexico Under Gen. Funston

Richard C. Stillman, son of Mrs. Ann Stillwell, 420 East Fifth street, and brother of Miss Dorothy Stillwell, was warmly greeted by his mother and sister on his return here on Thursday evening from Galveston, Texas, where he recently arrived with Co. L, Seventh U. S. Infantry, from Vera Cruz, Mexico, having served with the company under Gen. Fred Funston in the Mexican port city from April 21 to Nov. 23, 1914. Mr. Stillwell has been absent from Santa Ana for six years, three years of that time being spent in the U. S. army. He was guided to his mother's home on arriving here by the flags that decorated it in anticipation of his coming, that being the signal agreed upon between him and his mother and sister to inform him as to the location of the Stillwell residence. It may well be imagined that a joyful reunion took place on his arrival. Mr. Stillwell was robbed of his suit case just before leaving Galveston where he with most of the men who served in Vera Cruz, was honorably discharged. He was ill for a few days in the Galveston hospital on his return from Vera Cruz. He has a fund of information as to life in Mexico. Mr. Stillwell is rather inclined to seek a civil job rather than return to army service although he is in line for advancement in the army. His brother, John Stillwell, is with the U. S. S. San Diego at Mazatlan which will go to San Diego for the opening of the exposition on Jan. 1, 1915. John Stillwell has been in the navy for some time. He will probably be at the Stillwell home in the near future.

RED LETTER DAY

250 Sit Down at Feast Given by W.R.C. for G.A.R. Veterans and W.R.C. Women

A splendid turkey dinner with all the accessories was served at noon yesterday afternoon in the G. A. R. Hall for the members of the G. A. R. veterans and their wives and the members of the W. R. C. and their husbands also visiting G. A. R.'s and W. R. C.'s, the dinner being given by the ladies of the W. R. C. Two hundred and fifty people sat down to the abundantly loaded tables which were handsomely decorated with poinsettias and smilax.

The afternoon was spent socially, addresses being given by Judge E. T. Langley and Rev. Mr. Field. A duet by Mesdames Ludwig and Chapman accompanied by Mrs. Moesser, and a solo by Mr. Vieria, preceded an hour of singing by the entire company of old familiar songs. The afternoon was greatly enjoyed and this holiday feast marks a red letter day in the lives of the veterans and the women of the faithful auxiliary.

R. P. Mitchell, county superintendent of schools, and J. A. Cranston, Santa Ana city superintendent, go to Riverside Monday to attend the week's meeting of California county and city school superintendents.

HERBERT N. LOWE, LONG BEACH, IS ACQUITTED

LONG BEACH, Dec. 12—A verdict of not guilty was returned by the jury yesterday afternoon in the case of Herbert N. Lowe, a florist, charged with vagrancy. The jury, after returning from lunch at the Hotel Alexander, deliberated for only twenty-five minutes before it arrived at the decision that Lowe should be acquitted. In his argument to the jury, Attorney Roland G. Swaffield called attention to the fact that Special Officers Brown and Warren, on whose testimony the city mainly depended for a conviction, were paid by the city on the continuing basis. He also asserted that the blood of John Lamb, a prominent Long Beach citizen, who committed suicide following the publication of the fact that he had been arrested on the charge of vagrancy.

MAGILL IS ON BIG CONTRACT

Santa Ana Man Commences $170,000 Job at Pomona; Is Not Crandall Affair

George H. Magill of Santa Ana, who has entered in the street paving business with a vengeance, yesterday commenced work upon a $170,000 contract that he landed at Pomona. The contract calls for 9 1/2 miles of paving, some of it twenty-four feet wide and some of it full width of the street.

Magill has bought new equipment, and enters on the job with a fresh outfit. It was erroneously reported that Magill represented the Crandall Construction Company. Magill is going at the job alone. Crandall's outfit is still at work in Santa Ana on West Fifth and East Chestnut streets. George C. Roy has been employed as bookkeeper and collector for the Crandall Company.

Magill was formerly deputy city engineer under S. H. Finley. He and H. E. Smith took the contract for paving East Washington avenue in this city.

COMB SAGE TEA INTO GRAY HAIR

Darkens Beautifully and Restores its Thickness and Lustre at Once

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant; remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle, at drug stores, known as "Wyle's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyle's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger.—Advertisement.

AFTER CONCESSIONS AT SAN DIEGO, HOPE TO GET MONEY BACK

A special meeting of the stockholders of the Mahomet Amusement Company was held yesterday at the residence of A. E. Bird, the secretary-treasurer of the company, at 1055 West Fourth street. The company recently removed its principal place of business from San Francisco to this place.

Something over 500,000 shares of stock were represented, which was considerably more than the necessary two-thirds required to transact any business which might come before the meeting.

About sixty of the stockholders were present and it was demonstrated that they have confidence in the present management, which is in the hands of people, principally, of Orange county. Owing to the hard times, the wars and the fact that there is in the neighborhood of $25,000 worth of stock subscribed and not paid for, it was reported impossible to get the money for the erection of the Mountain at San Francisco and a committee was appointed to investigate a proposition at the San Diego fair looking to getting some small concessions there to operate in an endeavor to win back the investment made by the stockholders.

AMUSEMENTS

May Robson has spent her entire stage career impersonating eccentric females. They total 162, Miss Robson says, and embrace every type, from that of a forlorn slavey, to the imperious "Queen Elizabeth." And equally wide has been the range of her costumes, a flannel waist and skirt, with ragged stockings and broken shoes, sufficing for the dressing of the slavey, while $5000 was expended for the regal court attire of "Queen Bess," and this costume was of such massive proportions that it had to be adjusted by a special mechanical contrivance, fastened to the ceiling of Miss Robson's dressing room, as only by having the dress swung over her head could she get into it.

There is no woman on the stage with a record for the creation of comedy roles that begins to approach that held by Miss Robson. Indeed, few attractive women would continually disguise their features and lines to gain fame on the stage if they possessed Miss Robson's talents. They would have turned to the easier path of the leading woman, who can constantly exhibit her charm of face and form, and also have the ever-desired-by-woman opportunity to wear smart frocks. Therefore when a handsome woman like May Robson consents to so completely "hide her light under a bushel," you may be sure that the true artist is in sight. This is well proven in her case, when it is considered that she has as yet to score a failure in any role she has attempted and it has been rare indeed that a play in which she has appeared has failed to find favor with the public.

This season Miss Robson has been called upon to create what in her mind is her most unique role. In the book play, "Marthe By-the-Day," which will be at the Grand Opera House Thursday, December 17, she is to be seen in the character of a scribbowman. To the uninitiated it may be difficult to determine what possibilities Miss Robson could see in the role of so menial a character, but the great success that she is achieving in the part vindicates her selection of it. Her many local admirers, who are eagerly anticipating her visit, are anxious to see how Miss Robson will make the part up. That it will be distinct in make-up from all other Robson impersonations, bearing not the slightest resemblance to any of the slaves or maids-of-all-work that she has done previously, is assured. Miss Robson is an artist in make-up and extremely versatile in facial expression, and consequently has never been compelled to draw, in the slightest degree, from the picturing of a discarded character in order to help build up a new one.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

A better feeling in apples was noticed yesterday, the market showing an advance on Jonathans from all western states. The price moved up to $1.60 to $1.75 per box on the choice stock. Bartlett pears are still obtainable at 8 cents a pound. Lemon guavas are plentiful, but meet with little call, which is also true of the small red variety. The rain prevented arrivals of raspberries and blackberries and curtailed the supply of strawberries.

The first red globe onions to appear on the market were received yesterday and sold at $2.35 to $2.50 a hundred. White globe jumped to a price of $2.50 and are about cleaned up. The price on yellow Danvers and Australia brown dropped slightly after a few days of a $1.75 market. The sharp advance caused a decline in buying orders which necessitated the drop in order to overstock. Receipts of onions were 790 sacks.

Tuffree Passes When Two Other Autos Are Passing on Paved State Road

Details of a hair-raising experience on the state road at the top of the Fullerton grade were given Justice Cox this morning by H. D. Connell, P. S. Roper and W. A. Huff, all of Santa Ana. S. J. Tuffree of Placentia was up for hearing on a charge of passing two automobiles that were passing each other. He pleaded guilty and paid a fine of $10.

Connell was driving in one direction and met a line of three automobiles, Tuffree going at a good rate of speed swung suddenly out from the back of the hindmost of the approaching cars, and Connell had hardly a second to skid to the right. Tuffree went by with not a foot to spare. Tuffree said that when he turned out Connell's machine loomed up in front of him like a battleship.

'EVEN BREAK' FOR DEBATORS

Poly Wins at Intermediate and Loses at Orange

At Intermediate school last night Stanley Mansur and Charles McClain, arguing the negative side of the question for the Santa Ana high school, "Shall the United States Guarantee the Policy of the 'Open Door' in China?" defeated the Huntington Beach high school debating team. A good crowd was in attendance, considering the inclement weather.

At Orange Isabel Anderson and Irving Burns, representing the Polytechnic high school, and arguing the affirmative side of the question, were defeated by the Orange high school debating team. The attendance at the Orange debate was very good.

FAVORS CHANGE IN SETTLING SALARIES

Senator Thinks Responsibility Should Be in County, Not Legislators

ANDERSON TALKS OF PROPOSED LEGISLATION

Santa Ana Man Has in Mind Adjustment of Remuneration of Local Justice

State Senator John N. Anderson believes that the present system by which salaries of county officers are fixed and by which office help is provided for county offices places the responsibility where it ought not to be. He believes that the responsibility should not be upon a county's representatives in the Legislature, but rather upon some organization or body within the county.

The senator has not yet thought out a scheme for taking the responsibilities from the senator and assemblyman. He proposes to take that matter up with experts at Sacramento. He expresses an opinion to the effect that the recommendation of a grand jury is not sufficient and safe ground for procedure.

At the request of the Register, Senator Anderson today discussed proposed legislation in which he is especially interested.

Senator Anderson said: "It has been my legislative policy to introduce very few measures of my own initiative, and as a rule only such bills by request as there appears public demand for, believing that too many bills are introduced and too many laws passed; that we should have fewer laws and enforce them better. Members of the Legislature introduce very few bills, the majority of those introduced being either prepared or suggested by parties or associations particularly interested in some subject matter. It frequently happens that more than one member, and sometimes several members, introduce bills covering the same subject matter, one instance that accounts for the large number of bills introduced. Last Legislature I introduced a few of my own initiative, others at the request of some of my constituents, others, companion bills to those introduced by the three assemblymen of my district, and others at the request of various organizations. Many of the most important bills, including administration measures, are frequently prepared by parties outside of the Legislature and threshed out and often amended in committee and in the floor.

"To make as direct a statement as I can at this time, I have thought:

"1. Of proposing amendments to those sections of the Civil Code relating to parental control of minor children, their services and earnings, by putting the parents on an equality.

"2. Of making women eligible to serve on juries, believing it to be in the interest of society, and that as far as practicable the sexes should be on an equality.

"3. Of making it unlawful for school children to use or have cigarettes on school premises. I introduced a bill to that effect last session when it passed the Senate and was defeated in the assembly by one vote.

"It seems to me in the face of conditions prevailing in our high schools something ought to be done to aid our school authorities to stamp out the cigarette evil from our schools.

"4. Of authorizing the State Board of Health to prepare and disseminate knowledge for the prevention of tuberculosis and asking for an appropriation of $5000 for that purpose.

"5. Of empowering one or more stockholders to maintain an action for the dissolution of a corporation failing for an unreasonable time to declare dividends, thus affording some remedy of checking unscrupulous directors controlling the corporation paying themselves fat salaries and maintaining expensive offices year after year at the expense of the stockholders.

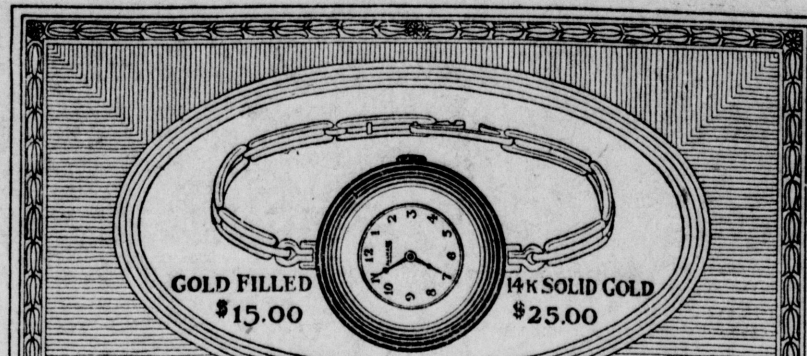

"6. I had thought of proposing to make the county government law more flexible in the matter of providing help in the various county offices as the work increases from time to time, by shifting that authority from the Legislature to some county organization, but I have not perfected a plan at this time. It has long appeared to me from my legislative experience that the adjustment of county salaries and county office help should not be reposed in the members of the Legislature representing a particular county, and in many counties in one assemblyman. While it is true that members of the Legislature have the recommendation of the grand jury, yet that recommendation is necessarily based on the short investigation of a small committee—usually inexperienced in such matters—and that such recommendation would not be endorsed by the people generally.

"Such a condition arose in Riverside county two years ago. The grand jury recommended the creation of a second judgeship and the assemblyman from that county, who was a practicing attorney, approved of it, and it seemed my clear duty to support the bill in the Legislature. The Chamber of Commerce of Riverside called me into a conference over the matter, where it was evident general opposition to the bill existed. Our conference resulted in a compromise deferring the time of the bill going into effect. The assemblyman and I went to Sacramento with the intention of putting through the compromise bill as agreed upon. I passed it through the Senate but in the closing hours of the session the assemblyman failed to have it passed in the lower house for some reason I have never ascertained. But the point I desire to make is that had the recommendation of the grand jury been carried through dissatisfaction would have been general.

"It is difficult for the assemblyman and Senator representing a county to measure the general desire of the people in such matters and they can hardly be expected to thoroughly familiarize themselves with the detail work of the county offices. It would appear some method other than the present should be provided. I intend to take the matter up with experts when I get to Sacramento and if some feasible plan can be thought out I will refer it to the people of Orange county in some way in order to get the general sentiment.

"Another instance of a change in the county government law along the line above suggested has just arisen in the matter of the county government bill of this county passed at the last session and relating to the office of justice of the peace. Through a constitutional amendment of four years ago when I was not a member of the Legislature, it was provided that the justice should not receive the fees and perquisites of his office to his own use after the termination of the then existing term, which, in Justice Cox's case, would be the end of this year.

"In reversing the county government act two years ago neither the grand jury nor the justice or the peace nor any other called that matter to our attention nor suggested the increase of salary that should have been made—for the justice should receive from $100 to $150 a month in townships of the class of Santa Ana. In reality, any amendment we made to the county government act two years ago did not in any way affect the office of the justice of the peace of this township, if the state constitution had

CHRISTMAS IS COMING

With Its Many Joys and Glad Greetings

If you are a housewife who is economically inclined, we believe you will agree with us that at the present cost of sugar, meat, currants, spices, etc., you cannot afford to make up a batch of Mince Meat for your holiday Mince Pies.

You will find it far more economical, and ever so much more satisfactory to buy ready-prepared "None Such Mince Meat," put up in single pie packages. A package of "None Such Mince Meat" weighing 9 ounces as it comes from the grocer's, weighs about 1 1/2 pounds when stewed and ready for the crust.

Mince Pie has become a National Dessert, not only during holiday time, but on all occasions and at all seasons. During the past 30 years "None Such Mince Meat" has grown so popular with the housewives of America that today it is considered a staple household commodity.

Not only is it the filling for the pies your boys (both big and little) like the best, but it is also used for other delicious desserts—such as Fruit Cake, Fruit Pudding and Hermit Cookies. Proven recipes for these dainties are printed on each package of "None Such Mince Meat." If you have not yet tried each of these, a treat is in store for you.—Advertisement.
